Celestica Expands Operation in Oradea, Romania

November 21, 2017 10:03 PM EST

TORONTO, ON--(Marketwired - November 21, 2017) - Celestica Inc.(TSX: CLS)(NYSE: CLS), a leader in design, manufacturing and supply chain solutions for the world's most innovative companies, today announced it has expanded its operation in Oradea, Romania. The expansion increases existing manufacturing services for Celestica's customers from a strategic location in Eastern Europe.

The 9,000 square metre expansion reflects Celestica's growing customer base and opportunities primarily in the Advanced Technology Markets such as smart energy, industrial and healthtech.

"Over the last 13 years, Celestica's operation in Oradea has become central to our global footprint and to driving flexibility, quality and greater value for our customers," said Rob Schormans, Senior Vice President, Operations, Advanced Technology Solutions, Celestica. "Our continued investment in Oradea reflects our commitment to the local community and to our highly skilled workforce."

The Oradea operation specializes in high-reliability, high-complexity applications for multiple markets. Its integrated operational platform includes a state-of-the art quality management system delivering the quality and reliability needed in mission-critical markets. The site also provides supply chain management and engineering services and is a global logistics partner to major customers. The operation leverages automation to drive improvements and is a leader in environmental and energy management practices.
