Celestica's 2014 Sustainability Report highlights the company's sustainability strategy and key activities and milestones for each of its focus areas including employee sustainability, environmental sustainability, material stewardship, sustainable solutions and sustainable communities. Highlights from the 2014 Sustainability Report include:

- Environmental sustainability initiatives that led to improvements since our 2012 baseline year including a 7% reduction in greenhouse gas emissions, 28,731 MWh reduction in electricity and the elimination of 13,977 tonnes of CO₂ from our operations.
- Material stewardship programs that resulted in 88.1% of waste diverted from landfill in 2014.
- External recognition that included being named to the 2015 Global 100 Most Sustainable Corporations in the World (Global 100) Index and Canada's Best 50 Corporate Citizens by Corporate Knights, an organization dedicated to encouraging responsible business practices.
- Community giving initiatives that included Celestica's leadership role in providing an energy solution to the Hôpital Albert Schweitzer, a hospital in Haiti that services 350,000 people.
- New programs to drive employees' engagement in our sustainability initiative such as the launch of the Sustainable Workspace community that challenges employees to make changes that are good for the environment and improve their well-being.
- This year's report was prepared at the core level in accordance to the Global Reporting Initiative® G4 Guidelines, a comprehensive and widely-accepted sustainability reporting framework.

"Our 2014 Sustainability Report showcases our achievements and the progress we have made to foster a culture of sustainability at Celestica," said Todd Melendy, Vice President, Sustainability and Compliance, Celestica. "Our success is a testament to the dedication of our employees who are driving Celestica's sustainability strategy and working together as a global team to make a difference with our customers, suppliers and in the communities in which we live and work."
