

EMC Recognizes Celestica with Second Consecutive Supplier of the Year Award

October 14, 2014 9:01 PM EDT

TORONTO, Oct. 14, 2014 /PRNewswire/ - Celestica Inc. (NYSE, TSX: CLS), a global leader in the delivery of end-to-end product lifecycle solutions, today announced that it has received the 2014 Supplier of the Year award from EMC. This is the second consecutive year Celestica has been recognized with this prestigious award from EMC. The distinction was awarded during EMC's annual Supplier Day in Boston, Massachusetts last month.

"The 2014 Supplier of the Year award recognizes Celestica for its outstanding commitment to delivering the best quality, value and on-time-delivery performance to EMC's customers throughout the year," said Steve Cleary, Chief Procurement Officer, EMC. "It also recognizes Celestica's willingness and ability to help EMC overcome challenges and embrace new opportunities with innovative solutions for our business."

"It is an honour to once again receive this prestigious award from EMC. This recognition reflects our unwavering commitment to deliver outstanding performance for EMC, a valued customer for more than 13 years," said Craig Muhlhauser, CEO, Celestica. "Through innovation and operational excellence, Celestica's global EMC team has continued to demonstrate our passion for delivering high value solutions in support of EMC's business objectives. Thank you to our partner, EMC, for once again acknowledging our commitment and contribution to their business success."
